RESPONDENT'S ANSWER TO ORDER OF AUGUST 6, 2001

D. Michael Fisher, Attorney General of Pennsylvania, by Andrea F. McKenna, Senior Deputy Attorney General, attorneys for Respondent, file this Response to the Order of August 6, 2001, directing Respondent to furnish to the Court, within 20 days of this order, a complete copy of the transcript of petitioner's trial, to include the trial court's ruling on Romansky's motion to suppress as well as tape recordings of the alleged admissions by petitioner. This Answer, with attachments, responds to this Order.

Tape Recordings

1. A set of four (4) cassette tapes containing consensual recordings of conversations between Thomas Smithers and Steven Romansky is being delivered with this Response. These recordings were reproduced by the Office of Attorney General, Technical Services Unit, Bureau of Investigative Services, on August 13, 2001, from original recordings made with the assistance of agents of the Office of Attorney General on December 19, 1985, January 14, 1986 and January 19, 1986. The original recordings have at all times been in the custody of the Office of Attorney General.

Trial Transcript

2. Appended to this Response are all portions of the Wayne County proceedings which have been transcribed; specifically, the testimony of Commonwealth witnesses Trooper Walter Moschowsky and Office of Attorney General Agent Russell W. Thomas. These are the only transcriptions in existence. See Attachment "A," Order of April 3, 1987. (Attachment "A" bears the docket number of the Wayne County prosecution and the signature of Wayne County Common Pleas Court Judge Robert Conway, P .J. The order is incorrectly captioned in the name of the Court of Common Pleas of Pike County.)

3. In 1999, the Office of Attorney General, through the undersigned, attempted to order a complete transcription of the entire Wayne County trial. Linus H. Myers, Wayne County Court administrator, researched the matter and determined that the original stenographic notes, which by Wayne County practice are the personal property of the recording stenographer, had been destroyed. See Attachment "B," letter dated January 29, 1999.

Respectfully submitted
